

Scoutmaster & Assistant Scoutmaster Training

Monday, February 2, 2009, 7 PM – until at Antioch Baptist Church

Outdoor Session

The weekend of February 7th at Camp Rainey Mountain

Who Should Attend?

This is an intensive training course for Adult Boy Scout Leaders. The course is designed for scoutmasters, Assistant Scoutmasters and all Committee Members as well as 2nd year Webelos Leaders who will be crossing over to Boy Scouts. It is for both new and experienced leaders and is open to all registered adult Scouters.

What are the areas of Training?

The Boy Scout Program
Troop Operation

The Patrol Method
Troop Program Planning

Boy Scout Advancement
The Outdoor Program

You will become a member of a patrol in an adult training troop. As a member of the troop you will learn how to train boys in troop operations including troop meetings and outdoor activities. You will learn how the advancement program works from Tenderfoot through Eagle Scout rank and how to organize the troop committee to provide an effective program for the boys in your troop.

What should I bring?

If you have the Official scoutmaster Handbook, and the Official Boy Scout Handbook, bring them. A pen or pencil and paper will also be necessary. The materials that will be necessary for the weekend session will be discussed at the weekly training sessions.

How do I register?

Send your name, address, e-mail, phone number, and Troop # to the Jefferson Scout Office, Attention Currahee District Scoutmaster Training, P.O.
