

Steps to Cub Scout Leader Training

Northeast Georgia Council, BSA

1

Youth Protection (Available On-Line and Leader Led):

An important component of the BSA's strategy to protect our scouts and children from abuse. Now On-line at www.scouting.org/training or see your Pack Trainer for more information. Also offered as a part of Cub Scout Basic Leader Training.

2

Cub Scout Leader Fast Start: (Available On-Line and Leader Led)

A good introduction to how Cub Scouting works and what new leaders need to know to kick off a great year for everyone. This is now available on the BSA On-line Learning Center at www.scouting.org/training. A video is also available (on a first come basis) at both the Lawrenceville and Jefferson Service Centers and may be checked out for five business days with a deposit of $10.

3

This is Scouting (Available On-Line and Leader Led):

An overview for adult leaders on the Boy Scouts of America and how we provide the youth of today a program that combines learning with fun (formerly called New Leader Essentials). Now On-line at www.scouting.org/training.

4

Cub Scout Leader Position Specific Training (Available Leader Led):

New leader training of the specific responsibilities for his or her position. Specific training is provided for Cubmasters, Tiger Cub Den Leaders, Cub Scout Den Leaders, Webelos Scout Leaders, and Pack Committee members. (On-line training coming soon!)

Supplemental Training:

Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation (BALOO): Hands-on experience designed to give leaders the techniques they need to conduct a Pack Overnight Camping Trip. This is required for pack sponsored overnight trips. Course Pre-Requisite: Cub Leader Basic Training.

Outdoor skills training for Webelos Leaders: Provides essential outdoor skills for Webelos Leaders planning, conducting, and leading Webelos den camping.

University of Scouting: An exciting carnival of action, activities and program ideas. Held in the fall each year.

Unit Leadership Enhancements: On going training that is available at monthly pack leaders' meetings, selected from the 15 topics included in the Cub Scout Leader Book (33221).

Adult Leader Roundtables: Get the latest news and event flyers, in addition to meeting with experienced adult leaders to review ideas, crafts, and other useful program helps. Held monthly in each district.

Scouting Safety . . . Begins with Leadership: Video available at our two council service centers.

Hazardous Weather Training: Required for all scout outings. Check out on-line training at www.scouting.org/training or see your Pack trainer or district calendar for dates and locations.

Safe Swim Defense: Required for all scout aquatics activities. Check out on-line training at www.scouting.org/training or see your Pack trainer or district calendar for dates and locations. Also check out Safety Afloat!

Woodbadge: Advanced training designed to provide leaders with leadership skills and a more dedicated involvement in Scouting. A limited number of courses are offered each year.

National Conferences: Offered at the Philmont Training Center in New Mexico and the Florida Sea Base in the Keys. See your District Executive for details.
